

HELP WANTED!

IBLCE in the AMERICAS IS SEEKING STATE COORDINATORS

Would you like to help with any or all of these activities?

- Attend conferences to inform attendees about
 - why they should seek IBCLC certification
 - how they can become an IBCLC
 - why they should hire IBCLCs
 - the value of IBCLC certification
- Meet with policy-makers to advocate for title protection for lactation consultants, third-party reimbursement, licensure of IBCLCs or staffing regulations
- Review applications for CERP-approval of continuing education
- Assist IBLCE in the Americas in locating missing IBCLCs
- Serve on an advisory committee for IBLCE in the Americas
- Help in other ways to be determined

Benefits: Depending upon your level of activities, you could:

- attend conferences at lower cost or for free
- earn no-cost CERPs
- receive a discounted or free ILCA membership
- earn money for your local lactation consultant association.

Requirements: You must be a currently certified IBCLC or 2009 exam candidate who lives in the USA and:

- is a currently certified IBCLC at the time of selection.

Coordinators will be selected from among those IBCLCs who complete a survey and interview. For more information see the reverse side of this announcement.

Please send me more information about becoming a state, province, territory or country coordinator for IBLCE in the Americas.
